HEAD COACH BOBBY SPROWL

Former major league pitcher Bobby Sprowl is in his sixth year at Shelton State after spending five years as pitching coach at the University of Alabama.

Sprowl coached at Shelton from 1986 until 1989 and compiled a 129-55 mark in four seasons. Under his guidance, Shelton made four straight trips to the Alabama Junior College State Tournament, finishing runner-up twice.

Sprowl enjoyed a fine college career at the University of Alabama, a second team All-American and consensus All-SEC pick in 1977. His 11.5 strikeouts per nine innings led the NCAA in 1977. Sprowl was recently named to the Crimson Tide's All-Century Team.

After his playing days at Alabama, Sprowl enjoyed an eight year professional baseball career with the Boston Red Sox and Houston Astros. Sprowl, who was the number two pick of the Boston Red Sox in the June 1977 free agent draft, was a member of the 1978 team that lost a one game American League Eastern Division playoff to the New York Yankees on Bucky Dent's famous three-run homer over the Green Monster at Fenway Park. On June 13, 1979, Bobby was traded to the Houston Astros. While a member of the Astros, Sprowl played on two Western Division Championship teams (1980 and 1981).

Sprowl has a 19-year old son, Jon Mark. Bobby is married to the former Teresa Gibson, and they have two children, Trevor and Graceson.

RUSS DAVIS

Russ graduated from Hueytown High School in 1987 where he was named to the All-County team. He attended Shelton State Community College in 1988 where he played for Coach Bobby Sprowl. While at Shelton, Russ played shortstop and was named to the All-Conference team. He batted .347 in 47 games with a team high 14 homeruns, and drove in 46 runs. Following that year Russ was drafted in the Major League baseball draft by the New York Yankees.

Russ made his major league debut in 1994 with the New York Yankees. In '95 he spent almost the entire season with New York as a backup to Wade Boggs. During the '95 off-season, he was traded on December 7 to the Seattle Mariners for Tino Martinez, Jeff Neson and Jeff Mecir. In 1999 he batted .245 with 21 HR, 59 RBI and 30 2B. He now plays for the San Francisco Giants

Russ resides in Birmingham in off-season with his wife Adryne and son Jared.
